

The National Association of Hispanic Publications' José Martí Media Awards 2024 AWARD WINNERS

The National Association of Hispanic Publications Celebrates Reaching 15.4 Million Readers Weekly
By Kirk Whisler

In 1982, when the National Association of Hispanic Publications was founded, none of us could have imagined how much media would have evolved over the decades. Today we can reach more people in more effective ways and in less time than we could have ever dreamed of. That is what the 2024 NAHP Convention is all about. How do publishers and editors channel all the power and reach they can have.

The NAHP Board and others in the industry have worked hard to bring the leading experts in this print to digital evolution and help expose NAHP to ways for them to both successfully maintain their newspapers and magazines AND increase their reach through the various digital avenues. Over the last few years this leadership has helped the NAHP grow to represent over 770 Latino newspapers, magazines, websites, podcasts, epublications, enewsletters, other media outlets which are used weekly by 15.4 million Latino readers nationwide.

The conference had many highlights including the selection of Erika Macias, publisher of Hola America News as Latina Publisher of the Year; Pedro de Armas, publisher of Informador, as Latino Publisher of the Year; Great industry insights from Editor & Publisher publisher Mike Blinder; Crafting Your Digital Niche; and Food industry insights from Goya's industry leader Rafael Toro. The many workshops included Philanthropic Support for Local Media; State of Local News Insights; Latino Print Matters: The Future of Small Business Owners; U.S. Hispanic Leadership Institute President Dr Juan Andrade, Jr; Better Government Association CEO David Greising; and U. S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce VP Antony Hinoja.

Sponsors of the Conference included T-Mobile, Wells Fargo, Google, Goya, Diageo, PopMount, Verizon, and NAHP Media. The was full of great workshops, wonderful speakers, and, of course, the NAHP's José Martí Awards.

Now for the winners:
